

This is a sample PDF document created for testing word count functionality.
It contains multiple lines of text to verify whether PDF text extraction works correctly.
You should count all words accurately and save the total number in a separate file.
This helps confirm that text extraction and word processing steps are functioning properly.